

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, March 12. 1706.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated March 5.

Rome, Feb. 13.

THE Pope, attended with a numerous Retinue, has this Week visited the Churches della Minerva, of the Oratory, and of St. Lawrence in Damascus; and since, being accompanied by 18 Cardinals, went to the Church of Ara Celi, where he assisted at the Te Deum which is annually Sung there, pursuant to a Vow made in the Name of the Roman People, by Way of Thanksgiving for the Deliverance of this City from the dreadful Earthquake about 3 Years ago. They write from Naples, that the new Levies are continued there, and that they wait for Orders from the Court of Madrid for transporting them to Spain.

Landau, Feb. 26. Upon Intelligence that we receiv'd the 24th Instant that a great number of the Enemy was in Motion for some Enterprize, our Generals reinforc'd the Posts of Ingweiler and Pfaffenhoven considerably, and also caus'd a Body of Horse and Foot to advance towards Haguenau, to make Head against the Enemy; but they making no Offer to Attempt any thing, our Troops are commanded to return into their Quarters. Deserters report the Enemy have a Body of 8000 Men between Strasbourg and Saverne, and that they have secur'd all the Passages towards Lorraine, to cover the Convoys they expect with Provisions and Forrage for storing their Magazines in Alsace. We expect Prince Lewis of Baden here to Morrow or next Day.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated March 4.

Cologne, March 2. The Estates of our Electorate that are assembled here, have resolv'd to store a Magazine with Forrage at Lintz, and have order'd the Sum of 16000 Rixdollars to be laid out for that Purpose. Two large Boats laden with Ammunition, are arriv'd here from Holland, and are to proceed to the upper Rhine. Some Days ago an Express arriv'd here from the Elector of Cologne, with some presents for the Prince of Saxe Zeitz and for Count Coningseck Dean of our Chapter; he brought them Letters likewise, in which his Electoral Highness desir'd them to let a rich Coach which he formerly left at Bon whence it was brought hither, be sent to him at Brussels; which they have agreed to.

From the Paris Gazette, &c. Feb. 27.

Paris, February 26. The 23d of this Month the Deputies of the Estates of Artois had Audience of the King, being introduc'd by the Duke d'Elbeuf Governour of that Province, and by the Sieur de Chamillart Minister and Secretary of State, and conducted by the Marquis de Dreux grand Master of the Ceremonies. The Bishop of Arras made the Speech to his Majesty, the Count d'Hombec de Dieuval Deputy of the Nobility, and the Sieur Hansart Deputy of the Third Estate, accompanying him. His Majesty has made the Marquis de Villette Lieutenant General of the Dutchy of Burgundy, and Governor of the Town and Castle of Bourbon Lancy, in the Room of the Count d'Amanze deceas'd. The 12th of next Month the King intends to take a Review of the Detachment of his French and Swiss Guards design'd to serve the ensuing Campaign in Flanders, which are to begin their March the 25th.

From the Leiden Gazette, March 4.

There are Advices from Cadix of the 2d of February, which say, that the Galleons and the Flota for New Spain were lading there with Expedition, but that it was not certainly known when they would put to Sea. And that the Day before, 3 French Frigates Sail'd from thence, with 16 Barks under their Convoy, having on Board 300 Soldiers, and a great Quantity of Ammunition of all sorts, for Ceuta in Africk.

Shields, March 7. Yesterday in the Evening sail'd out of this Port about 30 Sail of laden Colliers, the greatest part for the Coast, the rest for London, under Convoy of the Solebay and Chatham Prize. 'Tis hop'd they will go safe, tho' we have a Report that 3 large Privateers have been upon the Coast these 14 Days. These Ships were clear'd at the Custom-house before the Embargo was laid.

Bristol, March 9. Yesterday, being the Anniversary of her Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, the Shops in this City were kept shut, the Bells rung all the Day, and the Night concluded with Illuminations. The Right Worshipful the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Sheriffs, Common-Council and several of the Inhabitants met at the Council-house, where her Majesty's and the Prince's Healths were drank, the Princess Sophia's, the Duke of Marlborough's, my Lord Peterborough's and others, the City Musick Playing and Drums Beating, and all demonstrations of Zeal for the Government was shewn that could be expected on such an Occasion.

London, March 12.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Lisbon, brought by the Alliance Pacquet Boat, Captain Green Commander. The freshest Letters are dated the 5th of March N. S. and advise, that Sir John Leake with 12 English Men of War, and Baron Wassenear with 6 Dutch Men of War, fell down the River Tagus that Day, in Order to put to Sea, upon an Expedition (as was suppos'd) against Cadix, or (as others think) to intercept the Galleons in their intended Voyage for the West-Indies. These Letters add, that the Earl of Galway was at Elvas, and ready to march.

The first and most approved Angelick Tincture for Coughs began to be expos'd to Sale October 10. 1704. and for more than one whole Year escap'd unmolested by Counterfeits. It is a great and stupendous Medicine, having sav'd the Lives of many, doing the Cure on the Spot after a Thousand other things fail; when it is taken into the Mouth the Cough doth instantly Cease, and after 2 Days return no more, the Truth whereof is sufficiently evinc'd by Examples of Cures in former Advertisements. N. B. This excellent Secret is no where to be had save at, John's Coffee-house in Swithin's Alley by the Royal Exchange, and at the 7 Stars under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street. Price 1 s. each Bottle.

The Royal Chymical Wash-Ball for the Hands and Face, largely experienc'd and daily commended by all that use them, and that for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be parallel'd by either Wash, Powder, Cosmectick, &c. it is indeed a real Beautifier of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetter, Ring-worms, Morpew, Sun-burn, Scurf, Pimples, Pits or Redness or the Small-pox, &c. keeping it of a lasting and extream Whiteness, it soon alters red or rough Hands, and is admirable in Shaving the Head, which not only gives a more exquisite sharpness to the Razor, but so comforts the Brain and Nerves, as to prevent catch-Cold; and is of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury. Is sold only by Mr. Allnutt, Glover, the corner of Popes-Head-Alley against the Royal Exchange, and at Mrs. Giles's, Millener and Toyshop next Hercules-Pillar-Ally by the Temple, at 1 s. each, with printed Directions at large.

London Fucus for Shoes; being an unparallel'd Composition of the most pure and rich Blacks, choice Oils, &c. and is a thing so adapted to the Use, that the World never yet produc'd the like Invention, having gain'd a general Applause, causing the straitest Shoes to wear with delight and ease; Beautifies them to admiration, preserves the Leather from cracking or rotting to the very last; and frees the Feet of all Pains, Corns, Swellings, &c. Sold only at the 7 Stars under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, and at the Perfumers in the little Entry out of Castle Alley into the Royal Exchange. Price 12 d. a Roll. Note, one Roll serves one Person near half a Year. Beware of that late Counterfeit falsly call'd Paris Fucus.
